Longevity. WHAT IS THE EXTREME LIMIT OF HUMAN

LIFE ? Popular Science Monthly.]

Can man reach and pass the age of 100 years? is a question concerning which physiologists have different opin ions. Buffon was the first one in France to raise the question of the extreme limit of human life. In his opinion, Though it be what then caust not hope to limit of human life. In his opinion, man, becoming adult at 16, ought to live six times that age, or 96 years. Having been called upon to accout for the pheno nenal ages attributed by the Bible to the patriarchs, he risked the following as an explanation: "Before the flood the earth was less solid, less ompact than it is now.
